Iroquois Indian Museum

Agreement as to Terms and Conditions

The Iroquois Indian Museum (IIM or the Museum) holds the copyright to the materials/items in its collections (except as otherwise advised) and such materials/items may not be duplicated, replicated, copied, scanned, transmitted, printed, published or otherwise reproduced (Reproduced) without the specific prior written permission of the Museum. Permission to Reproduce, publish, distribute or otherwise use any image from any IIM collection in any print or electronic medium is contingent upon the acceptance and compliance with this Agreement as to Terms and Conditions (this Agreement) and the other provisions set forth in the related Application for Permission to Publish/Reproduce Images (the Application). Such permission is automatically terminated if any portion of this Agreement or the Application is not complied with.

In certain instances the Museum does not hold copyright. In those instances Reproduction requires the Applicant securing permission from the copyright holder.

1. The Applicant shall include the picture credit "Courtesy of the Iroquois Indian Museum" in any print or electronic medium as follows:

- (i) adjacent to the Reproduced image;
- (ii) in the text of the caption or at the end of the caption;
- (iii) in legible-size type; and
- (iv) in respect of Web use, by live link to www.iroquoismuseum.org.

Failure to individually credit any image shall result in an additional usage fee. Failure to comply with this picture credit requirement is a violation of copyright and this Agreement.

2. Reproduction is permitted only from materials originally supplied by the Museum. Permission to Reproduce an image from any Museum collection may not be reused, sold, assigned or otherwise transferred, including by operation of law, without the specific, prior written permission of the Museum.

3. Rights to Reproduce Museum images are non-exclusive and granted for one-time, single edition, single language use only. Any further revisions, additions, reprints or other Reproductions require a new application to be submitted to the Museum and are subject to the Museum's grant of permission for such revision, addition or reprint.

4. Each image must be Reproduced in its entirety and without alteration or cropping unless otherwise approved in writing by the Museum. Any such approved image must be labeled as "detail".

5. Two "best version" hard copies of any resulting publication or other Reproduction, and two "best version" copies of each resulting promotional publication in which the Museum images appear, shall be sent to the Museum without charge, immediately upon publication or other Reproduction.

6. Web site & other digital Reproductions must have a resolution of no greater than 72 dpi for an image up to 8"x10".

7. If so requested, proofs must be submitted to the Museum for approval prior to publication or other Reproduction. The Museum reserves the right to deny Reproduction if proofs are judged by it to be unsatisfactory.

8. The IIM reserves the right to withhold permission for any use for any reason whatsoever, including if judged by the Museum to be disharmonious or inconsistent with the mission, policy positions or objectives of the Museum.

9. Violation of copyright shall result from failure to comply with any of the provisions of this Agreement or the Application.

10. Permission is valid and granted only after all fees have been paid.

The fees outlined in the Application permit a one-time, single edition, single language use. Additional editions/languages require payment of a fee of 50% of the original use fee, per image. Rights do not automatically extend to multi-language publications. The Museum must be notified and must grant permission if foreign language or additional editions are proposed to be published or otherwise Reproduced.

11. Applicant agrees to indemnify the Museum and hold it harmless against any and all claims against the Applicant or the Museum by any persons or parties arising out of a violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement or the Application, including by reason of any Reproduction not in compliance with any such provisions.
